Lesson 2

TEEN newspaper

“... a small step for a man, one giant leap for mankind.”

IT WAS JULY 20, 1969. Millions of people watched on television, as astronaut Neil Armstrong, the commander of Apollo 11, walked on the moon for the first time in history.

The historic trip wasn't easy. After a lot of problems, Armstrong landed his lunar module, called the 'Eagle', on the moon. There were two more astronauts with him, Buzz Aldrin and Michael Collins. They put on their spacesuits and Armstrong opened the door. He climbed out on a ladder. It had nine steps.

Armstrong jumped the last step and his feet touched the moon. Some minutes later, Aldrin also climbed out of the 'Eagle'.

The two astronauts stayed about 3 hours on the moon. They collected rocks and planted the US flag.

On July 24th the crew landed in the Pacific Ocean. Scientists studied the rocks from the moon and discovered that there was no life there. Armstrong called their mission the 'beginning of a new age'. Did they do it again? No, they didn't. They stopped travelling into space. But that journey changed their life.

Q1:

Well, I started quite early. When I was young, I always told stories to my teddies. Later, at school, all my notebooks were full of my own stories.

One day, I saw an advert for teen writers in a newspaper and I thought, "Well, I'm a teenager and I want to be a writer!" So I sent them one of my stories. They liked it and gave me a job. At the age of 17, I became a writer!

Q2:

No, it wasn't. Publishers didn't like the first book I wrote. But I didn't stop. And I was right. It was magical when I saw 'Double Act' or 'Bad Girls' in the bookshops!

Q3:

You should read lots of books, different kinds. Another good idea is to keep a diary. If there's a school magazine, send your stories. It's not always easy but don't be afraid to try.

Antony Horowitz

Q1:

When I was 14, James Bond was my favourite hero. I very often went to the cinema to see him on the big screen. At that age, I thought that James Bond was the coolest man on Earth. When I began to write the first book, 'Stormbreaker', I knew that Alex, the main hero, had to be like James.

Q2:

About a year. I wrote every evening. When it was ready, I took it to the publishers. One day they called me and they said "We like it". I jumped into the air. My two sons got really scared.

Q3:

Alex Rider became a spy for the British secret service at the age of 14. He didn't want to but he didn't have a choice. He was really clever and he never lost his cool. That's why he succeeded in all his missions in the Alex Rider book series.
